

Nikki Forova

Nikki Forova's songwriting inspires a feeling of oneness and empathy. To Nikki, songwriting is a vehicle to bring what we feel from day-to-day, to the surface, to allow our hearts and minds to open. Through her melodies, intricate piano playing and words, (lyrics and reflections) audiences are invited to dive in, to connect with the deep feelings of love, hope, struggles and triumphs, as she sings about our journeys through life, searching for meaning and continuing to discover the light in and around ourselves and the essence of who we are.

During her music performances, as Nikki shares her soul-stirring songs, many people experience a feeling of grander hope, release and healing.

At Niroshini Transformative Retreats, Nikki will be treating guests to her songs and stories. They will be invited to sing along to some simple, beautiful lines and afterwards to ask any questions about the songs performed and share any feelings that may have arisen.

Background

Nikki Forova is an indie pop singer-songwriter and composer. She was born in Ukraine to a family of accomplished theatre actors. She was trained as a classical pianist at 7 years old and started composing and songwriting on her own at the same time. She moved to the USA and got a degree in "Music Composition and Songwriting". She received recognition through performances in the Los Angeles CA indie scene and her MTV appearance doing a duet with Vanessa Carlton, of a hit song "A Thousand Miles".

Having recorded and released three albums, Nikki has toured around the world several times since 2010, bringing music to people from many walks of life.

To hear one of Nikki's performances, please click here

"I'm in constant search for artists that grasp that inner feeling of intense emotion and her voice and music inspire exactly that. Songs like "After Today" and "Little Green Piece of Life" capture such intense feelings of incredible beauty, that it feels like I'm falling in love". ~ Mikey Jayy, All Indie Magazine